Forecast for Friday 23 Sep 2022

Weather: Cloudy with some patchy light rain to start as a front clears away to the southeast during the morning, leaving a risk of the odd shower on Friday afternoon before becoming drier later. There will be some cloud at times, but plenty of sunny spells in-between during the afternoon. Feeling fresher than of late in a northerly to north-westerly breeze.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 80%

Low cloud and visibility: Some of the summits will see some low cloud/fog through the morning, with bases of 300-400m as the front clears away. Very poor visibilities within any fog. For the rest of the day the cloud should remain above the summits. Moderate visibilities expected within any showers. Very good visibilities expected otherwise, with good air clarity, allowing distant hills to be seen.
